BALDWIN, J * (WW2)

there is a JE Baldwin from nearby Nilma North/Shady Creek however can't make a connection with Yarragon

BOWDEN, G L

Believed to be an error. The July 1920 article attached lists this name as Fowden G. L.. The positioning of the name between Faulkner and Grant would also support this. The addition of G. L. Fowden on the recently added brass plaques would suggest the error has occurred during refurbishment when memorial was moved due to hwy duplication and has never been corrected. G. L. Fowden #1190 is already linked to Yarragon War Memorial

CURRAN-GADSEN, A * (WW2)

<https://vwma.org.au/explore/people/285930>

born Yarragon

SUTTON, C *

recent inclusion ie brass plaque and while there is a Gippsland (Moe) boy that fits, cannot make the connection to Yarragon

WOODS, J on original memorial as J. Woods, this is beleived to be the W.J. Woods (below) included on the new brass plaque. It is interesting that W.J.'s younger brother Owen Wood [Woods] was included on the Yarragon State School roll as having enlisted. It is likely both boys attended Yarragon State while the family lived there c 1903, as only a year seperates them, and the wrong brother was added to the school board as no record exists of Owen enlisting
