"Died of wounds 2.10.18. Det. D/B"

I was with L/Cpl. Aubrey McIntosh (37.H/2) when he was severely wounded in the leg by a bomb from a German aeroplane, on the night of Oct 1st at Peronne. We were in a tent together behind the lines, and I was hit myself by the same bomb. We were both taken in the ambulance to the 41st C.S.S. at Douingt. I had my operation first and I saw him lying on a stretcher waiting for his. Our doctor was Lieut. Moorhead, R.A.M.C. I went on to Rouen two days later. Before I left I was told that he had died." The ground was held.

L/Cpl. McIntosh was brought into this C.C.S. from his billet which had been bombed by German aircraft on 1st October last. He was in a critical condition being badly wounded in both legs and arms. Everything possible was done for his comfort during his last hours and he passed peacefully away on the 2nd October. He was buried the following day at Doungt (near Peronne)

"D/W Oct. 2/18."

Tall and very stout, inclined to be fair, very chubby face, was Drum Major in our Battn. Band. Clean shaven, about 27 years of age.

We were in bed in our tents at Perronne on 1st Oct. 1918. He was in the next tent to mine. We were bombed by Aeroplanes. He was badly wounded and was taken to the C.C.S. in the same Ambulance as myself. He died the following day at the C.C.S. I do not know where he was buried.
