

The Collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice

Description: Sister Eleanor Wibmer Jeffries and Sister Nellie Constance Morrice (right) outside their tent at No 3 Australian General Hospital with flowers picked from the bank of the Somme.

Place made: France: Picardie, Somme, Abbeville

Date made : circa June 1917

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

H16063

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice RRC, AANS, sitting in a car holding a bunch of lilies and flanked by her parents David and Mary Morrice on her return from the First World War. Sister Morrice served with No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital and No 2 Australian General Hospital.

Place made: Australia: New South Wales

Date made : 1919

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10245.003

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice photographed with her brother Lieutenant J Morrice who served with the British Army. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Date made : circa 1919

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.012

Description: Portrait of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice MBE RRC of the Australian Army Nursing Service. Sister Morrice enlisted in the AIF on 21 November 1914, and embarked in the Kyarra on 28 November. After serving as head sister of No.1 Australian General Hospital (1 AGH), Heliopolis, Egypt, she was detached to No.1 Australian Auxiliary Hospital, and then to No.3 AGH, both in England. Early in 1917 she was posted to the British Expeditionary Force in France; she later rejoined No.3 AGH at Abbeville. On 3 June 1918 Morrice was awarded the Royal Red Cross (2nd class) 'for valuable services with the Armies in France and Flanders'. She returned to Sydney and her appointment ended on 15 January 1919.

Date made : circa 1918

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

H16062

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice, of No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital, swimming at Lake Timsah. Sister Morrice wrote to her family in Australia telling them she had learnt to swim while overseas. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt

Date made : circa December 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.008

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice, holding a bunch of lilies, is welcomed home from the First World War by her mother and father, Sarah and David Morrice. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Australia: New South Wales

Date made : circa 1919

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.013

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice (left), an unidentified nurse and patients at No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital, Ismailia. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : circa December 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.004

Description: Sister Elizabeth Mattie Chisholm and Sister Nellie Constance Morrice at the Trocadero attend a reunion of Australian Army Nursing Sisters who left aboard the Kyarra on 25 November 1914. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Australia: New South Wales, Sydney

Date made : circa 1960

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.021

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice (centre back), aboard HMHS Letitia en route to England where she was to join No 3 Australian Auxiliary Hospital, at Dartford. The male patients are both English and the other nurse is unidentified. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: At sea

Date made : circa October 1916

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.010

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice and some unidentified orderlies in an operating tent at No 2 Australian Stationary Hospital on Lemnos. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Greece: Aegean Islands, Lemnos

Date made : 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.003

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice (left), an unidentified nurse and patients on the verandah at No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital, Ismailia. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : circa December 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.005

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice (left), an unidentified nurse and patients on the verandah, the canvas blinds rolled up, at No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital, Ismailia. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : circa December 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.006

Description: 197 Private Arthur James Morrice, 13th Battalion, on the steps at No 2 Australian General Hospital (2 AGH), recuperating after being wounded on 30 April on Gallipoli. His sister, Sister Nellie Constance Morrice met up with him while working at No 2 AGH. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Cairo

Date made : circa May 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.001

Description: Soldier patients at No 3 Australian Auxiliary Hospital, at Dartford. Sister Nellie Constance Morrice (nearest to the table) was in charge of the ward which has been decorated for Christmas. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: United Kingdom: England, Kent, Dartford

Date made : 25th December 1916

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.020

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice (left), and unidentified males, possibly staff of No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital, swimming at Lake Timsah. Sister Morrice wrote to her family in Australia telling them she had learnt to swim while overseas. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt

Date made : circa December 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.007

Description: Portrait of Mary Margaret (Peggy) MacInnes dressed up as an AANS nurse. Peggy's aunt, Sister Nellie Constance Morrice, enlisted in the First World War and served with No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital and No 2 Australian General Hospital. Sister Morrice made a miniature nurse's uniform for a doll which she sent to Peggy from Egypt; the doll is now held in the collection of the Australian War Memorial at REL39961.

Place made: Australia: New South Wales

Date made : circa 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10245.001

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice (second row, fourth from left), en route to Australia aboard HMT Demosthenes with a number of other returning nurses. The photograph was taken 17 January 1919 aboard the ship and made into a souvenir by photographer Oswald Hobel in Melbourne on return to Australia. Captioned "Homeward Bound, Memento of the Red Sea". From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: At sea

Date made : 17th January 1919

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.011

Description: Portrait of Mary Margaret (Peggy) MacInnes dressed up as a nurse and holding a bandaged teddy bear. Peggy's aunt, Sister Nellie Constance Morrice, enlisted in the AANS during the First World War, serving with No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital and No 2 Australian General Hospital. Sister Morrice made a miniature AIF nurse's uniform for a doll which she sent to Peggy from Egypt; the doll is now held in the collection of the Australian War Memorial at REL39961.

Place made: Australia: New South Wales

Date made : circa 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10245.002

Description: Group portrait of the nursing and medical staff of the No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital at Ismailia. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : 1915 - 1916

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.017

Description: Met by ambulances and a hospital vehicle, the hospital boat arrives at Ismailia to the No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : 1915 - 1916

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.018

Description: Unidentified soldiers, some of the first wounded on Gallipoli, recuperating at No 2 Australian General Hospital. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Cairo

Date made : circa May 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.002

Description: Sister Helen Keith, of No 3 Australian Auxiliary Hospital, at Dartford with an unidentified male. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: United Kingdom: England, Kent, Dartford

Date made : circa October 1916

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.009

Description: Soldiers visit a small village near Ismailia. A photography studio offers "Developing and Printing Postcard souvenir of Egypt". From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : 1915 - 1916

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.016

Description: A soldier patient at No 1 Australian Stationary Hospital stands to attention (left) as he watches troops return from a funeral at Ismailia. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : 1915 - 1916

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.019

Description: Patients of the 1st Australian Stationary Hospital in a tent ward. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morrice.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : circa 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.014

Description: Outdoor group portrait of nurses of No 2 Australian General Hospital who sailed from Sydney on 28 November 1914 aboard HMAT Kyarra.

Identified in the back row from left to right: Sisters Constance Adel Stone from Orange, NSW; Emily Broughton Gwynne from Ryde, NSW; Lily Campbell from Richmond River, NSW; Ida Mary Garven from Clarence River, NSW; Mary Theresa Martin from Newcastle, NSW; Sarah Varcoe from Gunbar, NSW; Gwladys Gwynne Llewellyn from Ryde, NSW; and Nelly Francis Hill from Epping, NSW.

Second row from left to right: Sisters Janet Sorley from Sydney, NSW; Grace Thompson from Strathfield, NSW; Lydia Kate King from Orange, NSW; Bessie Ada Todhunter from Summer Hill NSW; Ursula Mary Carter from Darling Point, NSW; Daisy Donaldson Richmond from West Goulburn, NSW; Muriel Wakeford from Wollongong, NSW; Myra Septima Wyse from Randwick, NSW; Minnie Kate Porter from Woollahra, NSW; Sophie Durham from Sydney; and Sylvia Mabel Weigall from Darling Point.

Third row from left to right: Sisters Margaret Woods from Moree, NSW; Eva Estelle Holloway from Ashfield, NSW; Mary Nash from Mosman, NSW; Nellie Constance Morrice from Sutton Forrest, NSW; Annie Bertha Parry from Picton, NSW; Florence Ethel Spalding from Manly, NSW; Phyllis Mary Boissier from Mascot, NSW; Elizabeth Mattie Chisholm from Goulburn, NSW; Flora Robertson from Bellevue Hill, NSW; Wilhelmina Fillans from Arncliffe, NSW; Amy Ennis from Chatswood, NSW; and Winifred Mary Tait from Carlington, NSW.

Front row from left to right: Sisters Bessie Crago from Yass, NSW; Maud Margaret McNulty from Sydney (later awarded Royal Red Cross Second Class); Elizabeth Kearey from Randwick; Eileen May Coleman from Lewisham, NSW; Edith Annie Foster from Vaucluse, NSW; Clarice Molyneux Dickson from Grose Vale, NSW; Dorothy Grendoline Cawood from Parramatta, NSW; Annie Isabelle Coombes from Artarmon, NSW; and Annie Georgina Farquhar from Mosman.

Place made: Australia: New South Wales, Sydney

Date made : November 1914

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

H18334

Description: Group portrait of sisters and matron of the AANS (possibly in front of the Sydney Hospital). Identified, left to right: back row: Sister (Sr) Scott; Sr Millie Alberts (later Bell); Sr Alice Maud Hannam (later McGregor); Sr Smith; Sr Perkins; Sr Agnes Alexina McRae Jolly; Sr Christina May Wearne (later Thompson); Sr Evans; Sr Murphy; Sr Walker; Sr Mitchell.

Second row: Sr Parsons; Sr Blinoley; Sr Emma Dixon; Sr Adelina Marks; Sr Vera Steel (later Rawson); Sr O'Connell; Sr Doyle; Sr Bernice Margaret Collopy (later Whitton); Sr Hannah Pankhurst; Sr Walsh; Sr Dora St Martin Johns (later Coy); Sr Nowland; Sr Elizabeth Kearey.

Front row: Sr Elsie May Smith; Sr Elizabeth Kearey; unidentified; Sr Nellie Constance Morrice; Matron Clementine Hay Marshall; unidentified; Sr Sophie Hill Durham; Sr Maude Stokes; Sr Jones.

Place made: Possibly Sydney

Date made : circa 1921

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10122.004

Description: Major (Maj) Henry Arthur Powell, 1st Australian Stationary Hospital operates in a simple operating theatre, assisted by an unidentified anaesthetist. A doctor from Norwood, SA prior to enlistment, Maj Powell embarked from Melbourne on HMAT Kyarra on 4 December 1914. From the collection of Sister Nellie Constance Morric

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : circa 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P10300.015

Description: Group portrait of the matron and nursing staff of the 1st Australian Stationary Hospital.

Identified left to right (back row): Sister Florence Herbertson; Sister Elsie Rose Grant; Sister Emily Birkin; Sister Cecil Imogen Keith Gordon.

Third row: Sister Mildred Brown; Sister Gertrude McKern; Sister Daisy Davison; Sister Mary Winter; Sister Eila Isabel Calvert; Sister Helen Maud Keith; Sister Stella Edith Pines; Sister Muriel Helen Shepherd.

Second row: Sister Amy Walker McNulty; Sister Jane Hall; Sister Ethel Ridgeway Bailey; Sister Margaret Frances Eldridge; Sister Alberta Jean McKenzie; Sister Lily Campbell; Sister Elizabeth Hamilton O'Reilly; Sister Katie ('Kitty') Rees; Sister Amy Jane Hazelton-Heard; Sister R. Smith; Sister Florence Emily MacDonald; Sister Violet Mary Hardwick; Sister Mabel Tilton; Sister Ivy Agnes Ripper.

Front row: Sister Frances Mary Deere; Sister Anne Kidd Hart RRC; Matron Jean N. Miles-Walker (later RRC, died of illness on 31 October 1918); Sister Nellie Constance Morrice; Sister Elizabeth Gertrude Fleming.

Place made: Egypt: Suez Canal, Ismailia

Date made : circa February 1916

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

C02305

Description: Sister Nellie Constance Morrice made an Australian Army Nursing Service outfit for the doll as a gift for her four year old niece Peggy in 1915.

Date made : 1915

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

REL39961